The Laughing Lady

There once was a lady who never stopped laughing.
Someone looking at a book would make her chuckle.
She would see the farmer in his field and giggle.
Even when someone cried, she would keep laughing.
When something was really funny, she laughed more and more.

People started to become angry with the lady.

They thought she was laughing at them.

One day, they asked her why she laughed all the time.

The lady said that laughing was the way she showed love.

Because she loved everyone so much, she couldn't stop laughing.

The people felt better and they all laughed together.

Leopards

Leopards are big cats that like to climb and hide.

They can be as big as a person, but they run much faster.

Leopards are great at climbing trees.

They carry big animals up into the trees to eat them.

They also carry their kittens up into the trees to protect them.

Leopards are great at hiding, too.

Some have yellow fur with dark spots.

Others have dark brown or black fur.

Their fur can be so dark that you can't see their spots.

The special colors help them hide high in the trees.
